

Prenatal Resources at Your Fingertips

Now offering more programs for our expecting moms. Take advantage of the offerings on the reverse side to enjoy a more convenient, more comprehensive, more connected prenatal experience.

Breast Pump Program

Offering you more convenience with breast pump ordering through Axia-approved partners in your region – all leading suppliers of breast pumps and breast pump accessories. With fast and exceptional service, our partners manage the entire breast pump ordering process for you. We will place your breast pump order between weeks 24–28 of your pregnancy and you will be contacted to select your pump, while our partners take care of the rest!

Bringing you more comprehensive services through Birthly. Birthly offers prenatal education classes from the comfort of your home. With certified instructors, convenient online classes and live interaction teaching, you can learn about pregnancy, delivery, breastfeeding and newborn care! Visit mybirthly.com/axia for more information.

We are now more connected with a mobile education app offering you provider-approved resources and customized content throughout your pregnancy and postpartum journey. Learn, grow and stay connected through the Babyscripts My Journey app!

To download the app, scan the QR code below and click I have a passcode. Enter the group passcode 'AXIA' and follow the steps to register.
